RECRUITED!

Spencer is just an ordinary kid until one decision changes everything.

Although the idea of Christian spies seems laughable, Spencer accepts his recruitment into the Mission League, and begins training.

When he travels to Moscow with the other teen agents, he stumbles onto a mysterious case. Will Spencer obey God or break protocol to stop a mysterious woman from exposing the secrets of the Mission League.

Jill Williamson writes young adult novels that combine danger, suspense, and excitement with daring characters who are forced to face the problem of evil. Her work has appeared in Brio & Beyond and Devo'Zine. She lives with her husband and two children in Burbank, California. Contact Jill at: jwilliamsonwrites@sbcglobal.net
